IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH : NAGPUR

CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 362 OF 2007
IN
WRIT PETITION NO. 3969 OF 2004

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.	Court's or Judge's orders

CORAM : B.P. DHARMADHIKARI, J.
JANUARY 22, 2007.

Heard Shri Shrivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner - employer and Dhande, learned counsel for the respondent – employee.

The application seeks direction to the learned 4th Labour Court, Nagpur, to consider application for withdrawal of complaint moved by present respondent.

Shri Shrivastava and Shri Dhande, learned counsel state that matter is amicably settled between the parties and hence the respondent – employee wanted to withdraw his complaint. The Labour Court has not passed any orders because of interim orders granted by this Court in the present writ petition.

As both counsel state that the controversy is amicably settled by them, the Labour Court may proceed further to consider the application for withdrawal of complaint made by the respondent – employee and pass appropriate orders in it.

It is apparent that in view of the joint statement made and this application filed, the grievance in the petition also does not survive. Writ Petition is, therefore, disposed of as settled out of Court. Rule discharged. No order as to costs.

Hamdast granted.
